Nancy Wynne Tells of a Number of Things—Miss Draper Will Visit Miss Caldwell—A Young Swain Gives His Reasons

IT SEEMS strange not to have a ball to go to tonight, doesn't it? Of course there was a bit of a rest on Monday night, but Tuesday there was the opera, followed by the Supper Club...

I HEARD a wonderful story recently which shows the budding gallantry and romance of those days. For after all we hear so many tales of the want of old-fashioned courtesy, even in the wooing of these days...

MY WHAT pretty clothes the girls are wearing this year! And I am glad to say that most of the debutantes are wearing sleeves in their dresses and, in fact, a great many of the gowns have sleeves...

Well, to continue on the subject of clothes, Sophie Yarnall has a lovely gown of French blue velvet which is very smart. It is made on plain lines and has a draped skirt...

Polly Griceon wore a lovely frock at the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tattall Starr gave for her on Tuesday. It was of gold lace over a white dress with a chiffon sash...

Frances Ross, who was formerly introduced last night at a dance which was given at the Acorn Club, wore a lovely frock of white net embroidered with crystal beads...

I HEAR that Ruth Draper, who is coming here on Monday to give some of her impersonations for the benefit of the Smith College endowment fund, will stay with Miss Florence Caldwell...

SPeAKING of the Academy and Meyer reminds me. I hear that the boxes are selling very well for the coming anniversary ball. Mrs. Arthur Lea has taken one and so has Mrs. Bertram Lippincott...

The other famous ball, which was held in the Academy the following year, was the Bachelors' ball and that has much tradition about it as well as the opening affair...

before the first Assembly. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. William Baker Meisen, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gilpin...

Among the guests who will attend the dinner to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tattall Starr at their home, 2105 Walnut street, tomorrow night, in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Sarah Barringer...

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wharton Lippincott, of Oak Hill, Bethesda, will entertain at dinner tomorrow night at the home of Mr. Lippincott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bertram Lippincott, 1713 Spruce street...

Mr. and Mrs. William Jenks Wright, of the Pelham Apartments, Germantown, will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening before the First Assembly.

Dr. Charles Bingham Penrose, 1720 Spruce street, has issued invitations for a dinner on Thursday, January 20, in honor of Miss Sarah Barringer, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dexter Wariner...

Miss Helen L. Sewell, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sewell, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon party followed by supper at the Ritz-Carlton on Thursday, January 27...

Mr. and Mrs. Williams Roberts, of Penock Farm, Bala, will give a dance on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Clark, of Willowby, Cynwyd, will entertain at dinner on Saturday night before the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Williams Roberts will give...
